Reports and passage of characters of the Conference Officials. Jerome Hodges, Superintendent.

"Since ones work speaks louder, and it is by far more important, than any oral report he could give I feel a delicacy in saying anything about what I have done. But since I am required by this conference to give such report I submit the following: I have visited every church in the conference at least one time, several twice, and some three times during the year; also visited all the mission points with the exception of Waddell's Mission; presided over twenty District Conferences and five Conference Board Meetings; held some meetings; assisted several evangelists in meetings; also assisted several pastors in filling their appointment; attended the General Conference; managed the Piney Grove Camp Meeting; and Bible Conference; assisted the Whiteville and Elizabethtown churches during those months after the pastor, Rev. I. H. Presley, was transferred to the Baltimore Conference. I have attended approximately 350 devotional services, 85 business meetings, and Sunday School 46 times.

I have endeavored to do my whole duty to the best of my ability. I appreciate the prayers, sympathy, cooperation, and support of the Conference. May we all pray and humbly submit ourselves to God in this session of Conference that He may have an opportunity to place us in our respective fields of labor.

Board loaned Rev. T. O. Todd ten dollars ($10.00) from the Educational Fund.

Board made the following donations: Fifty dollars ($50.00) toward building a church at Wallace, the size to be not less than 30x40 feet; twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to the church at Morehead City; twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to Bear Creek church.

3. Board met at Shelmerdine Nov. 25, 1936.

Upon investigation the Board finds: First, that the Secretary of the local church acted illegally in refusing to sign the letter granted by the Church to L. W. Gaskins; Second, that the Church acted illegally in not granting him a trial upon his request. We therefore recommend that the Conference Superintendent sit as Chairman, instead of the young pastor, in the further disposition of this case; also that an impartial Board be selected from another Church to hear the case and pass on it.

The expenses of Board members to this meeting and the preceeding one paid, seven dollars sixty cents ($7.60).

All members were present.

4. Board met in Rocky Mount March 16, 1937 to consider charges presented by the pastor W. J. Noble against W. B. Matthews, Mrs. W. B. Matthews, and Miss Gladys Matthews, viz., that they are out of harmony with the pastor and the Church. Upon investigation the Board finds that the charges are true as to W. B. Matthews and Mrs. W. B. Matthews. Miss Gladys, their daughter, was not present, but made request that her name be dropped. Accordingly, on motion her name was dropped under charges.

The Board recommends that Brother and Sister Matthews apologize to the pastor and the Church, and from now forth show a spirit of fellowship and cooperation, and upon failure to do so within three months their names shall be dropped from the Church Roll.

On motion, if a delegate or alternate to General Conference shall fail to go, the Conference Superintendent shall appoint one of those already elected in his place.

Report of Committee on Prohibition and Public Morals.

In addition to the report as adopted in 1936 we your Committee on Prohibition and Public Morals, recommend that the following, with reference to public morals be added:

1. That in order to hold the standard of morality high and

Holy, wholesome literature be provided in our homes for the benefit of our children, and that unwholesome and degrading literature be denounced and ruled out.

2. That parents see to it that all pictures of a degrading type shall not be publicly placed on or adorn the walls of homes.

3. That we as a Church, endeavor in every way possible to discourage the divorce evil as practiced in this modern age, and that in, and under every circumstance, we lift the standard of morals as high as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

J. G. Spivey,
I. D. Dickens,
Thera Autry.

Report of Committee on Missions and Evangelism.

We, your Committee on Missions and Evangelism, recognize and appreciate the good work done in the various mission fields by our faithful missionaries backed up by the united efforts of the Church at large in supporting the cause. We appreciate the earnest efforts of our General Missionary Secretary, Bishop Dan T. Muse, in keeping the missionary activities of the Church constantly before the people. We also appreciate the steps taken by the Conference Superintendent, pastors, and evangelists, in raising funds for the return of Rev. J. W. Brooks and family to South Africa.

We submit the following recommendations:

1. That fervent prayer be offered daily for our missionaries on the field as well as for those in the homeland.

2. In view of the fact that our last year's Minutes show that a large per cent of our churches in the North Carolina Conference contribute nothing at all for foreign missions, we recommend that each pastor check his pastorate as to last year's work on foreign missions, and set out to make a definite improvement for the coming year.

3. We heartily endorse the penny per day plan for each member of the local churches, and societies, and we urge that all pastors endeavor to keep this before their churches until the entire Conference has reached this goal.

4. That each pastor endeavor to be a source of missionary information to his congregation. Such information may be obtained in The Advocate each week, and also through direct correspondence with our missionaries on the fields, and by inviting the returned missionaries to your churches.

5. That competent ministers be elected as Conference Evangelists.

6. That the Conference Official Board work out a satisfactory plan with the evangelist to keep him on the field, especially during tent season.

7. That a committee in each district be appointed at the first District Conference to help the Official Board raise money, and to devise means to evangelize their territory.

8. That all who own or have the use of tents to do their best to keep them on the field in season; and all of us, by the grace of God to spread the Gospel this year.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Brooks,
Ethel Strickland,
W. J. Noble.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools and Pentecostal Young People's Societies.

This committee makes recognition of the importance of the early religious training of our youth and respectfully requests this conference to give more attention to the essentials of Christian Education as may be carried forward in organized Sunday School and P. Y. P. S. activity.

We urge the promotion of these departments in a manner as set forth in the Constitution of Sunday Schools and Pentecostal Young People's Society as adopted by the General Conference.

In furtherance of a successful Sunday School program, we recommend:

That pastors give encouragement to officers and teachers by attendance, and also by inviting new pupils; that pupils carry with them their Bibles and make use of them in study of the lesson; that teachers make use of the best helps available in preparation for the instruction they give their classes; that teachers hold such study courses and meetings as will enable them to better administer the Word of Life; that encouragement be given young Christians by using them in the Sunday School service in such positions as they may be qualified to fill efficiently, that Pentecostal Holiness literature be used in every department of the local schools.

Co-operation of pastors and laymen in an active manner with the membership of the Sunday Schools, and the North Carolina Conference Sunday School director will promote this phase of work in this area and will result in better and more thorough church school training.

Our youth offer to our church a challenge and opportunity. We feel that our conference will benefit in a great manner from the program of training and service provided for it through the P. Y. P. S.

We ask that consideration be given the following recommendations:

We offer the P. Y. P. S. as a training unit in the church to supplement the program of religious education facilities of the Sunday School, and that it be considered in its proper light as an integral part of the church.

That our people be encouraged by our pastors to attend the young people's meetings and special services which may be conducted in the interest of Sunday Schools and the P. Y. P. S. by those whom the conference chooses to elect to supervise and direct this work.

That this conference pledge its support and co-operation to the general officers and annual conference officers elected to fill positions of leadership in the P. Y. P. S. and that throughout the conference territory support be given the societies in each local church in the activities which our youth may undertake.

We recommend that in each district conference area, during one of the conferences held of the year, there be held a special session for leadership of the Sunday School and the P. Y. P. S., such a program for the meeting being developed for the mutual benefit of officers and teachers and others interested in the problems which arise in the execution of their respective duties.

We bespeak for our Sunday Schools and P. Y. P. S. membership a loyalty on the part of the church which not only includes attendance and interest, but prayer, adequate financial support, and co-operation that these agencies may be used for advancement of the Kingdom of God, the expansion of the church, and the enrichment of the spirituality of every member.

James W. Butler,
W. B. Godwin,
Wesley J. Noble.

Report of Committee on Education.

We, your Committee on Education, submit the following report:

Whereas there are thousands of children and young people growing up in our church and Sunday Schools; and

Whereas there are stringent laws being enacted to compel parents and guardians to send their children to our public schools, we think the matter of their education is of serious concern when we are forced to place our children under teachers who do not believe the Bible, neither have but little respect for those who do believe it and who are endeavoring to adhere to its teachings.

Therefore, we insist and earnestly persuade all the parents who are trying to educate their children to urge them to read the Bible and all good wholesome literature, in harmony with the doctrine of the Pentecostal Holiness Church; furthermore, to support our church school at Franklin Springs, Ga., the Holmes Bible and Missionary Institute at Greenville, S. C., and all other institutions of learning which will develop our young people into a strong Christian character, and will prepare and fit them for all honorable positions which it might be their privilege to occupy,

We also urge all our ministers to take greater interest in reading, and impressing upon our people by constantly reminding them of the church paper, The Pentecostal Holiness Advocate, and The Youth's Leader, and that they put forth a more earnest effort to study Pentecostal Holiness Sunday School literature.

We also recommend that one-tenth (1-10) of our tithes paid into the Conference Treasury be paid to our church school.

A. H. Butler,
O. T. Howard,
Hubert A. Morris.

Report of Committee on Orphange work.

We, your Committee on Orphanage Work, beg to submit the following report:

In as much as the orphanage work stands among the most worthy features of our great cause, we earnestly suggest that there be given one service each month in each of our churches and missions for the cause of orphanage needs, and that an offering be taken for the Falcon Orphanage in each of these services, and that there be appointed by the pastor, one to conduct these services whom he may consider the most competent. We insist further that each individual member of the P. H. Church, or Mission, and even others who may feel it their Christian duty, to rally to this cause.

M. D. Sellers,
V. W. Callahan,
L. D. Terry.

Report of Committee on Finance.

We, your Committee on Finance, beg leave to submit the following report:

We recognize from the Scriptures the spiritual and economic value of the tithing system, generally accepted among us as God's financial plan, and believe that to follow such a plan is productive of great good to those individuals and churches which operate on such a system.

We recommend the following:

1. That all lay members pay tithes into the church treasury at the point where they hold membership, said tithes to be disbursed by the official board of the local church.

2. That all ministers of the North Carolina Conference patronize the Conference treasury by paying one-half (½) of their ministerial tithes into the said treasury, and the conference board shall have authority to disburse said tithes except as provided in this report.

3. We further recommend that no minister of this conference shall be eligible to hold official position who fails to comply with section two of this report, also that no layman shall be eligible to hold official position who fails to co-operate with said system in his church.

4. That ten (10) per cent of said conference tithes be used for evangelization of needy fields.

5. We further recommend that the present Provident Fund be converted into a Superannuate Fund, and that annually fifteen (15) per cent of the conference tithes shall be paid into this fund. No minister shall be eligible to receive remuneration from this Superannuate Fund who fails to comply with the system as set forth in this section.

6. The following appropriations are recommended to be made by this session of the North Carolina Conference:

Bishop J. H. King	$200.00
Rev. Jerome Hodges, Conference Supt.	25.00
Rev. C. B. Strickland, Sec.-Treas.	25.00
